1. Read and understand the problem statement This means read the problem carefully so that you know what is given and what is to be accomplished. Rephrase the problem to make sure you understand it. An anecdote illustrates the point of really understanding the problem:
An English family visiting Khartoum in the Sudan took their young son each day by the statue of General Gordon on a camel. On the last day of their visit to the statue as the family was leaving, the boy asked, "Who was that man sat on General Gordon?"
